	Bullying	Jessica Wharton, Bullying Prevention Specialist	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> x Jessica Wharton talked about what is and what isn't bullying, the impact and warning signs, how it can be reported, and what strategies parents can use to find out and/or prevent their own child from bullying others. She compared the differences between a conflict and bullying. She also defined the many channels of social media that are being used to bully. Parents are being advised to take measures early in their kids' age to prevent them being victims of bullying. AB 9, also known as Seth's Law or the Safe Place to Learn Act was briefly explained. Steps someone can take to report bullying were laid out and a form that anyone can fill was also passed out to everyone. Resources were noted on the power point presentation for references.
