template each year that required reformatting. State's new mantra is continuous improvement. Districts are asked to commit to a three year plan.

Member Minnick thanks Member Woo for bringing up his statement, which is a concern.

President Hansen would like to shoot higher and increase the graduation rate to more than what is indicated in the LCAP.

Member Woo motion to approve Item 3.1 with an amendment to the annual graduation rate from .65% to 2.5%.

Member Cochrane 2nd

Board Comments:

Member Cochrane requests that we request from staff a snapshot card about how we are doing in the district on the four criteria:

1. 1st grade learn how to read
2. 2nd grade need to come out knowing fractions

3. 8th grade if you are failing odds are that you are not going to make it through high school

4. 9th grade credit acquisition is critical to be able to graduate on time.

It shows how we are doing and where we need to push harder. Would like an assertive attendance campaign defined and limited in scope. They primarily involve personnel issues, pending litigation, labor negotiations, and real property matters.

4.1 Government Code 54956.9 - Conference with Legal Counsel – Anticipated Litigation:

- a) Existing litigation pursuant to subdivision (a) of Government Code section 54956.9 (OAH Case No. SE001-1617)*
