The two main goals of programs serving English Learners are to develop proficiency in English and to provide access to the core curriculum. In accordance with state law, the Sacramento City Unified School out and signing the Waiver for Bilingual Education (see other side). The school must grant your waiver request unless it is determined that your child's educational needs would not be met in a Bilingual Program. If the school denies your waiver request, you have the right to appeal. If the school currently does not offer an alternative bilingual program (due to less than 20 approved waivers at a grade level), you may still request
