

I Declare to

in Accordance to

in Accordance to

As an educator and/or community member residing within Sacramento

As a student, parent of the Sacramento City Unified School District (SCUSD), I believe diversity, respect and equity are essential to the success of our students and the well-being of our community.

I am committed to the following principles: The fundamental rights of all people shall be protected and promoted. All people shall be treated with respect and dignity. All people shall have the right to participate in the educational process without regard to race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, age, disability, religion, national origin, ancestry, or any other characteristic that is unrelated to a person's ability to learn. All people shall be treated with respect and dignity. All people shall have the right to participate in the educational process without regard to race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, age, disability, religion, national origin, ancestry, or any other characteristic that is unrelated to a person's ability to learn.

All people shall be treated with respect and dignity. All people shall have the right to participate in the educational process without regard to race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, age, disability, religion, national

origin, ancestry, or any other characteristic that is unrelated to a person's ability to learn.

All people shall be treated with respect and dignity. All people shall have the right to participate in the educational process without regard to race, ethnicity, gender, sexual

orientation, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, age, disability, religion, national

origin, ancestry, or any other characteristic that is unrelated to a person's ability to learn.

All people shall be treated with respect and dignity. All people shall have the right to participate in the educational process without regard to race, ethnicity, gender, sexual

orientation, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, age, disability, religion, national origin, ancestry, or any other characteristic that is unrelated to a person's ability to learn.