

What is School Site Council?

What is the School Site Council?

The School Site Council (SSC) is a group of people who work together to help improve the school. It includes parents, teachers, and community members. The SSC is responsible for developing and implementing the school's improvement plan. It also monitors the school's progress and reports to the school board. The SSC is a key part of the school's governance and is essential for ensuring that the school is meeting the needs of all students.

Why Serve on the School Site Council?

Parents who serve on the School Site Council can help improve the school and ensure that their children are getting the best education possible. They can also help to build a strong relationship between the school and the community. Serving on the SSC is a great way to get involved in your child's education and to make a difference in the school.

More Information

For more information about the School Site Council, please contact the school principal or visit the school website. You can also find more information on the Department of Education website.

How Can Parents Get Involved?

Parents can get involved in many ways, including attending school meetings, volunteering, and serving on the School Site Council. The School Site Council is a great way for parents to get involved in the school and to help improve the school. Parents who serve on the SSC can help to develop and implement the school's improvement plan and to monitor the school's progress. They can also help to build a strong relationship between the school and the community.

